Special Notes:

The 2023 Nimitz Soccer Camp will be held at Nimitz High School. Campers will be grouped according to age or ability and will be introduced to the fundamentals of technique and the demands of the game.

Techniques that will be covered include dribbling, passing, defending, heading, and shooting, as well as other topics. Each participant will receive a camp T-shirt. Each camper is encouraged to wear appropriate clothing (t-shirt, shorts, socks, soccer shoes and shin guards) and bring their own soccer ball. Individual awards will be presented each day at the end of camp. Soccer videos and indoor soccer may be alternative activities in case of bad weather. The Irving ISD Food Service Department will be providing breakfast & lunch for athletic camps this year. Breakfast will be available 30 minutes before the start of morning camps. Lunch will be available at the end of morning camps and 30 minutes prior to the beginning of afternoon camps. Meals must be eaten on campus.
